

Company

Secretarial Support

Centralis Group provides a robust and tailored service to provide end-to-end support for our clients' company secretarial requirements.

At Centralis Group, we provide a fully personalised service that covers every facet of our clients' needs. Our global solutions and specialised support are designed to enhance the efficiency of your business operations.

We have the expertise to assist, whether you're establishing a new entity or implementing new financial reporting policies. With global presence and experience over multiple jurisdictions, we can ensure you are receiving the highest standard of service and knowledge from our team.

13

Different
Countries

16

Global
Offices

c.320

Experienced
Professionals

2.8k

Client
Structures

Outline of service:

- Full company incorporation services
- Financial statement consolidations by jurisdiction
- Setting up charts of accounts and full reporting solutions
- Management of day-to-day accounting operations
- Prepare and maintain tax records
- AML and KYC services
- Provision of payroll services
- Cross jurisdiction knowledge and support
- Tax compliance services
- Corporate secretarial services
- Management of board meetings and draft minutes
- Provision of forecasting, budgeting and cashflow analysis
- Arrangement of local and international banking services
- Management of cash and treasury solutions
- Provision of HR services
- A client first, personally tailored approach