

Entity Formation

Centralis Group provide expert guidance for clients forming new companies and entities globally.

Incorporating new companies or expanding operations across different jurisdictions can prove time-consuming and costly for your team, especially when navigating the intricacies of varying regulatory requirements, governance, and risk factors.

Our team responds quickly and effectively to administrative matters, speeding up your time to market and your new business operations.

13

Different Countries

16

Global Offices

c.320

Experienced Professionals

2.8k

Client Structures

Outline of service:

- New global company incorporation
- Access to the Centralis local presence, globally
- Scale quickly and efficiently
- Facilitation of local bank account requirements
- Support with regulatory body registrations
- Access to local addresses and fully equipped and modern offices
- Access to multilingual staff
- Global knowledge on a local scale
- Support managing local correspondence
- Support with varying regulatory requirements
- Significantly expedite the company formation process
- Minimise risk factors
- Due diligence services including KYC and AML
- Maintenance of shareholder records and entity records
- Provision of telephone numbers in local office environments
- Support navigating local regulation and compliance requirements